Our responsible lending obligations

We are obliged to ensure that any loan or principal increase to a loan we help you to obtain or any lease we help you enter is not unsuitable for you. To decide this, we may need to ask you some questions in order to assess whether the loan or lease is not unsuitable. The law requires us to:

- make reasonable enquiries about your requirements and objectives;
- make reasonable enquiries about your financial situation;
- take reasonable steps to verify that financial situation.

Credit will be unsuitable for you if at the time of the assessment, it is likely that at the time the credit is to be provided:

- you could not pay or could only pay with substantial hardship; or
- the credit will not meet your requirements or objectives.

For example, if you can only repay by selling your principal place of residence, it is presumed that the loan will cause substantial hardship unless the contrary is proved. For this reason we must ask you to provide a significant amount of information.

It is important that the information you provide us is accurate, complete and up to date, as if we proceed on incomplete or incorrect information, you may be in breach of your legal obligations to the lender.

We will provide you with a copy of our preliminary credit assessment of your application if you ask within seven years of when we provided assistance you. This requirement is only triggered if we give you credit assistance.

Providing feedback and resolving difficulties or complaints

We hope that you are delighted with our services and we always welcome feedback on what they appreciated about our service and how we can improve the service we provide our clients.

If you experience difficulties or have any complaints, you can raise these directly with the representative with whom you are dealing. If you remain dissatisfied with the outcome of your complaint, you may refer the matter to the Australian Financial Complaints Authority (1800 931 678) an ASIC-approved External Dispute Resolution service (www.afca.org.au). External dispute resolution is a service provided at no cost to you, which gives you access to an independent mechanism for the resolution of specific complaints or disputes.

You can obtain further details about our dispute resolution procedures on request.

Being financially responsible

At the core of our business is unyielding ethics and an emphasis of being financially responsible. We expect our clients to be financially responsible in respect of any money they seek to borrow and in this regard:

- You should ensure that you have approved finance, in writing from the lender, before entering a binding contract to purchase property.
- It is important you understand your legal obligations under, and the financial consequences of, the loan. If you have any concerns, you should obtain independent legal and financial advice before you enter into a loan contract.
- We do not make any promises about the value or future prospects of any property you finance with us. You should always rely on your own research, enquiries and advisers.
- Before you accept your loan offer, make sure you read the credit contract carefully to understand full details of the loan. If you have any doubts, you should obtain independent legal and financial advice before you enter any loan contract.
